

Draw Like Me Activity

Materials: Drawings, blank paper, and parkers

Focus Area: Communication

Time Needed

- 15-20 minutes

Group Size:

- 10-80 people (even numbers so you can pair them up)

Directions

- Have people divide in pairs
- Provide 1 person with a blank piece a paper
- Provide 1 person with drawing (do not show drawing to others)
- The person with the drawing will describe to the person what their drawing looks like without using the
- The person with the blank piece of paper will try to draw what their partner is telling them

Debriefing Questions

- What made this activity challenging?
- As the person with the drawing, how did you describe to your partner what to draw without actually saying what the picture was?
- As the person drawing, in what ways did your partner communicate effectively with you?
- What did you learn from this activity that you can use in your organizations or when working in a team/group setting?

The Leadership Education And Development Office
at George Mason University

These resources have been adapted throughout the years. If you know the origin of any of these activities, please feel free to let us know so we can list the proper citation. A special thank you to the students, faculty, and staff who have contributed over the years.

